With events spanning the entire month of February — even the bonus day this year — Black History Month promises to people care about each other and the impact each of us can have. That is what the Emory

Purpose Project is working to do.

*Our libraries take an expansive view of access and diversity, in close alignment with the Emory sociologist Karida L. Brown has been nominated for an

Emory Libraries receives 2024 Library Excellence in Access and Diversity (LEAD) Award