Congratulations Class of 2023!

404-712-2049 (TDD)

scholars at the design table with technical researchers,” says Lauren Klein, the project’s

“If we are going to imagine more just and equitable uses of AI, we will need humanities

And what is the role of the humanities in this pursuit? The individuals receive these well-earned national honors is particularly gratifying.”

and sciences,” says Ravi Bellamkonda, provost and executive vice president for academic Jewish Studies and the Department of Religion.

Deborah Lipstadt named to Time magazine's

I thank Enku Gelaye, senior vice president and dean of Campus Life, and Vice Provost Carol can bring their whole selves with them to work, teach, learn and create,” says Bellamkonda.

“To heal and transform, we must begin with a truthful, nonjudgmental discussion that respects transitions to Emory.

have been in,” says Sharon Stroye, who will join Emory University as the inaugural director of neuroscience and behavioral biology from Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, near the Tennessee connect. She will remind fellow graduates of how valuable that mindset is as the class orator

Between then and the first day of class on Aug. 28 of that year, she built an ever-expanding aligned perfectly with her own — a match made in heaven.

gauge student, faculty and staff experiences of race relations — before, during and after the that allow some people to be treated differently from others. When the campus community

Racial Climate Survey Reveals Variety of Campus Experiences

over the academic year. OSRL provides this list in order to help prevent scheduling conflicts

Members of the Emory University community observe many diverse religious holidays. Below

counting of this period (sefirat ha-omer) begins on the second evening of Passover, Shavuot

The month of May is recognized as Mental Health Awareness Month. Consider these data opportunity to raise awareness about hearing and speech problems, and to encourage people

Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA). Each May, this annual event provides an

CDC observes Better Hearing and Speech Month (BHSM), founded in 1927 by the American

May is Jewish American Heritage Month, a time to celebrate the contributions those of Jewish literary books about and by Asian Americans. The popular ones include the following titles.

Jewish American Heritage Month May 2023

This movie vividly and philosophically depicts the human experience of love, kindness, and

As we celebrate Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage (AAPIH) Month, it immediately

The Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

Sincerely,

Congratulations to the Class of 2023! We are so proud of all that you have accomplished

Rosemarie Garland-Thomson

May 2023 Newsletter

The papers of Jack Stewart Boozer are housed here at Emory University and are

Stewart Boozer married Ruth Cummins Tate in 1942, and they had three children, Jack, William, and Brenda Boozer (renowned opera singer).

The papers of Jack Stewart Boozer are housed here at Emory University and are Manuscript, Archives, and Rare Book Library to view the collection.

Sobha P. Fritz, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Pediatrics

Training Subgroup for the Society of Pediatrics Psychology. I was able to give back

“...and worked toward healing the many wounds.”

I have found my Asian American heritage to be an inspiration to continue my work.

My Asian American heritage led me to pursue a career as a pediatric psychologist,

As we celebrate Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage (AAPIH) Month, it immediately

The Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

Sincerely,