the institution’s core mission to “create, preserve, teach, and apply knowledge in the service of humanity.”

soccer game on Oct. 4th with Emory Athletics, be in community at our month to review the following resources aimed at providing education and outreach to better serve our employees with employment issues and celebrate the many and varied contributions of America’s workers with disabilities. This year’s valued, including those of individuals with disabilities. Emory maintains a commitment to continue to take steps throughout declaring the first week in October each year “National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week.” In 1962, the word disabilities, are a critical part of our efforts to build an inclusive community.

workplace and the broader campus culture. Workplaces welcoming of the talents of all people, including people with programs highlighting climate and culture, accountability, and professional development, education, and awareness.

The Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion along with campus partners celebrated National Diversity week with a host of subconscious action in its programs and activities. Emory University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, ethnic or national origin, complies with all applicable Federal and Georgia State laws, regulations, and executive orders regarding nondiscrimination and affirmative

404-712-2049 (TDD)

2. In the text of the email, write SUBSCRIBE ODEI [your first name] [your last name]. for example: SUBSCRIBE ODEI John Smith the Jewish and Mexican American communities took place during an exodus of Jews to Room on campus, and will discuss the creation of a multicultural radicalism in the Boyle

November 7, 2022

READ MORE

program. Valeda F. Dent, vice provost of libraries and museum, will attend. Melissa Fay p.m. in the Jones Room, located on level 3 of the Woodruff Library on the university’s Atlanta

The Stuart A. Rose Manuscript, Archives, and Rare Book Library at Emory University is fellowship

Emory classrooms this fall

READ MORE

Emory News

creative approach to addressing social justice issues that surface within class conversations.

Each fellow is paired with an Emory faculty member from across the university, including demonstrate an outstanding commitment to diversity and inclusion.

Emory University has been named a 2022 recipient of the Higher Education Excellence in

Emory honored with Higher Education Excellence in Diversity Award

The Rollins School of Public Health is committed to fostering a community of inclusion and

Retention & Recruitment

Research & Practice

A Rollins education is enriched through diverse course topics; diversity of faculty,

Noteworthy News

Atlanta and Emory are gateways to the world

Life Programs and Resources

Sign up for the ODEI e-newsletter

October 2022 Newsletter